Ambiente offers young designers an international stage at the heart of a truly global industry: Students, university graduates and young designers are invited to apply for the Ambiente Talents support programme with innovative concepts and products from the fields of Interior Design as well as Tableware & Accessories.

The selected designers will present their work in the Talents area in Hall 3.1 from 29 January to 2 February 2027 - within Ambiente's international hub for Interior Design, Hospitality and the project business. In addition to free exhibition space, the programme offers participants the opportunity to connect directly with representatives from industry, retail and the media. With participants from more than 160 nations at its most recent edition, Ambiente provides an exceptionally international environment and gives young designers the opportunity to present their work to a global trade audience.

Applications can be submitted online by registering and uploading meaningful project or product photos. The application deadline is 26 October 2026.
